Software Intern - 630968

Description

The successful candidate will work as a member of a cross-geographic team responsible for developing and supporting sample applications for Intel - Media SDK, including console applications and components for different multimedia frameworks (Microsoft DirectShow*, Media Foundation*)

Qualifications

You should be a university student at your 3-rd year at least or a Ph.D. student in Mathematics, Computer Science, Computer Engineering, or related field. Additional qualifications include:
- Demonstrated experience/knowledge with C/C++
- Good debugging skills
- Good English-language verbal communication and writing skills
- Ability to effectively work with a cross-geographic team of engineers
- Media codecs (MPEG-2; H.264, etc), multimedia framework infrastructure is a plus
- Linux experience is a plus

Please submit your resume in English to russiastudent@intel.com